

Lewis Oliver

While continuing his studies in Construction Management at RMIT, Lewis is taking on responsibilities as Building Cadet with Chroma Group. His previous professional experience has proven him to be a reliable team member. He has particular skill with numbers and strives to provide a high level of client service.

Chroma Group

2023 - Current

Building Cadet

- Responsible for all project deliverables across multiple projects in the hotel sector.
- Project responsibilities include quality assurance, programme management, budget management, design development, value engineering, site safety, client management and internal forecasting and reporting.

Key Projects

- Tomasetti House - current

Education

- Bachelor of Applied Science (Construction Management) - (current) - RMIT Melbourne

