

Mark Fisher

With 17 years experience in the construction industry, Mark has a lot to offer to his work. His previous roles as a Carpenter, a Foreman, a Construction Trainer and a Site Manager, coupled with his driven work ethic, make him an invaluable asset to any construction project.

Having worked on a wide range of project types, from new builds to heritage refurbishments, Mark understands the importance of simultaneously having both safety and quality at the forefront on-site.

Mark is dedicated and adopts a hands on approach to developing solutions which are specific to each project that he is a part of.
